

HOT HAPPENINGS

● Monday: This week is all about beauty and fashion, starting today with the launch of the Rosemount Sydney Fashion Festival at Martin Place. Also today is the launch of the new scent from Jo Malone at the Summit Restaurant. ● Tuesday: Never has a butcher's shop elicited such excitement as the new Victor Churchill store opens in Woollahra. Swimwear brand Seafolly showcase their new collection as part of the Fashion Festival, and more fashion later with Star Style in association with GQ magazine and Paramount Pictures. ● Wednesday: Pretty things on show as Bras N Things launch their new Annalise lingerie collection, and finally something for the boys as the 2009 Wallaby season launches at Cargo bar. ● Thursday: A busy night, with Myer's Spring/Summer Collection show at the CarriageWorks, Kristy Hinze hosting a Project Runway evening in Potts Point, and Lyndsey Rodrigues hosting the Be The Face Of Simple 2010 at King St Wharf.