

HAVE A BUTCHERS

Victor Churchill butchery in Sydney's Woollahra is fast becoming the place to pick up extraordinarily good cuts of meat, charcuterie and roasted joints from the rotisserie. But what's not as well known is that beyond the glamorous European-style floor-to-ceiling, glass-walled coolroom lies a private dining room where wine buffs can enjoy their own special drops matched to a menu especially created by Victor Churchill chef Romeo Baudouin. The room holds up to 14 for dinner and around 20 for cocktails and features plasma screens and a state-of-the-art sound system. For bookings, contact Danette Elliott (02) 9328 0402 or email danette@victorchurchill.com.au.
