

Little black book

Matt Moran
Chef and Restaurateur

In each issue we ask outstanding creative talents to reveal some of their favourite indulgences in life, including any recommended contacts they care to share.

Matt Moran is co-owner and head chef of the award-winning ARIA Restaurants in Sydney and Brisbane, Australia. A member of the prestigious International Culinary Panel for Singapore Airlines since 2003, he is an Australian cuisine icon recently selected to judge on the television show MasterChef Australia. Late 2011 sees the launch of his new cookbook as well as the opening of his new casual eatery in Woollahra (Sydney) featuring its own herb and vegetable garden.

- 1 Riding and racing my Ducati 1098 S superbike on weekends or whenever I can. www.frasermotorcycles.com.au
- 2 Buying, cooking and eating anything and everything from Sydney's amazing Victor Churchill butchers. www.victorchurchill.com
- 3 Swimming and snorkelling in crystal clear ocean waters at the beaches in Bondi and nearby Clovelly. www.sydney.com/town/bondi.aspx
- 4 Appreciating the fine craftsmanship in my Hublot King Power All Black watch. www.jfarrenprice.com.au
- 5 Admiring the work and being the occasional subject of acclaimed Australian artist Vincent Fantauzzo. www.vincentfantauzzo.com

